PLAY BY PLAY

PLAY BY PLAY is open to high school students of special promise and ability who will be entering grades 10, 11, or 12 next fall or who will have just graduated from high school this spring. Students admitted to the program must have at least a 3.0 cumulative grade point average on a 4-point scale or its equivalent.

Tuition is $650. Scholarships are available, but only for students demonstrating true financial need. Admissions are determined on a need-blind basis. No student will be prevented from participating in the program because of inability to pay tuition.

Classes are held at the Rice University campus, Monday – Friday, except 4 July. This program is meant to be enjoyable, but it is also challenging and requires focused effort and commitment.

To apply, fill out the student section of this form and then have a teacher or counselor who knows you well complete the recommendation section. Your teacher or counselor should then mail the completed form along with an official transcript reflecting your grades and an unofficial copy of your PSAT scores plus any additional documentation required for scholarship consideration to:

Wonderworks
PO Box 667550
Houston, TX 77266-7550.

To ensure full consideration, applications must be received by 1 May; early applications are encouraged.

All applicants will be notified of acceptance by 22 May; early applicants will be notified earlier. Late applications will be considered only if space remains available. If you have questions or need additional information, e-mail info@wonderworkshouston.org or call 713.301.4882..

The poet fancies others to be this or that; the player fancies himself to be all that the poet but describes. A little rouge makes him a lover, a plume of feathers a hero, a brazen crown an emperor. Where will you buy rank, office, supreme delight so cheap as at his shop of fancy? Is it nothing to dream whenever we please, and seem whatever we desire?

WILLIAM HAZLITT, “The Manager,”
London Magazine, 1820

The theater is...the meeting place of all the arts.

OSCAR WILDE, “The Truth of Masks,” Nineteenth Century, May 1885

I like the ephemeral thing about theater, every performance is like a ghost – it’s there and then it’s gone.

MAGGIE SMITH, interviewed by Suzie Mackenzie,
Guardian, 19 November 2004

Theater is one of the oldest and liveliest of the arts – a storytelling form that night-in, night-out still keeps audiences on the edge of their seats and couches, from Broadway to Blu-ray. PLAY BY PLAY is your ticket to exploring this perennially popular, inherently multimedia mode of entertainment and literary endeavor in the company of fellow aficionados and yet-to-be-discovered actors, directors, playwrights, and critics.

For two hours each morning you’ll “rehearse and rehearse” a Wonderworks Players workshop production for family and friends under the guidance of a seasoned director whose body of work includes not only Hamlet but Hairspray and pleasure points in between. After intermission for lunch, you’ll watch performances on film of some of the most memorable plays ever written or acted – both on and off the beaten path – introduced, screened, and discussed with the wit and wisdom of our own deep bench of theater mavens. And since everyone’s a critic, you’ll also sample short pieces of dramatic criticism and commentary to enrich your appreciation of the plays you see each afternoon, a few of which you might even decide to review yourself.

Think of PLAY BY PLAY as your own private theater club. No prior theatrical experience or knowledge required – just a trouper’s spirit and a zest for playing the parts (whether your name’s up in lights or not), while mining the plays on film and companion readings to develop a deeper, broader understanding of what makes theater work from both sides of the footlights.
